The Ellendale Fair held at Cardville yesterday, and from every point of view it was the best exhibition of the kind ever held in Kentucky. Good crowds in attendance and it promises to fulfill the brightest anticipations of its hostling proprietor, Mr. W. F. Hapler.

Carrie, the little daughter of Mr. W. F. Hapler, died at the residence of her parents last Friday. Those excellent people were visitors to our midst several weeks ago and have many friends who deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

W. F. Hapler, proprietor of the Ellendale Fair, which occurred yesterday to continue five days, will accept our thanks for courtesies extended. Mr. Hapler has spared neither time nor means in making this one of the prettiest and most convenient grounds in the State. All who can do so should attend.

Mr. E. W. Bartlett, of the Louisville Conference Parsonage, department of Church Extension, will address the ladies at the Methodist Church, Sunday night. We shall commence a protracted meeting at Graham Sunday next. Rev. F. A. Mitchell will arrive Monday and will be present Tuesday and on for some days. We desire an earnest effort on the part of all christian people.

Rev. E. W. Bartlett, Pastor.

Mr. Eliza Foyner, sister of John Foyner, deceased, died at her home in Beaver Dam yesterday at 11:45 o'clock a.m. Mrs. Foyner was 82 years of age.

A faithful woman is gone, one who had enjoyed the confidence and respect of all. She was advanced in years and had been a sufferer for many months, and for several weeks she has been lying at death's door.

Mr. James Salinger happened to a very fatal accident while setting some posts last Wednesday. Mr. Salinger was holding the posts, while A. H. Henderson was driving. Mr. Salinger stepped down to pick up some nails, and when he stepped, he left his finger on the post and his hand was caught between the post and the wheel and the result was Mr. Salinger's finger was mashed almost into jelly.

He was brought to town and Dr. J. H. Fugate dressed the finger and he has been getting along as well as he could under the circumstances.

The people of Hartford were saddened last Wednesday evening when it was learned that Mr. F. W. Yeiser was dead. It was not unexpected for he had been ill many months of a complication of incurable disease, but there was a grief and regret that springs to the heart when one hears that a good citizen, a Christian gentleman and an honored neighbor has passed into the realm of the great beyond. Mr. Yeiser had long been a citizen of the county and town and was highly esteemed by all.

For many years he had been a member of the Baptist church. He bore his affliction with Christian fortitude and has gone to meet a reward. Funeral services were conducted from the funeral home by Rev. A. R. Stupp, after which his remains were interred in Oakwood Cemetery.

Col. R. H. Dent, of the United States Life Insurance Company, was here last week, arriving here two days after the death of Mr. F. W. Yeiser, who held a policy of insurance in that company. Col. Dent spent some time learning of Mr. Yeiser's death and proof of the claim was at once made to the company and he will be paid at once. Such are the methods of this splendid insurance company.

No quibbling is indulged in here. No questions raised and nothing asked for delay. It is such business methods that make this company a favorite with our people. Many a family has been shifted from helpless widows and dependent families in this community by the prompt and prompt payment of policies held here in the United States Life Insurance Company.

THE WINNERS NAMED.

A TRIUMPHANT DEMOCRACY SELECTS ITS LEADERS.

Ohio County's Next Representative Named and a Cornerstone—Capt. S. K. Cox, Esq. J. L. Harder.

Premont to announce the Democratic hosts of Ohio county met in mass convention at the court house yesterday to nominate a candidate for Representative and for Coroner. The meeting was called to order by chairman, Geo. L. Likens and Ron E. D. W. was unanimously chosen for chairman. Menacing the stand from behind he has so often rendered favorable legal rulings, Judge Walker proceeded in his own quiet and effective way to make valuable suggestions to every citizen who favors the Democratic and good government. He spoke for the time-honored principles of the party and pledged the faith of Ohio County's Democracy to the maintenance of those principles, which have secured to us the enjoyment of civil and religious freedom.

Worthy and able it met a responsive echo in many an old time Democratic heart and for the first time since made secretary and a committee upon party organization was appointed, consisting of Messrs. B. P. Taylor, J. H. Holbrook, John T. Smith, Jr., W. A. H. Jones, J. W. Thomas and B. B. Stewart. While these gentlemen were deliberating in committee upon the subject of how to call upon his friends, Mr. H. Jones was called upon and made a speech fully worthy of the man and the occasion. Spoke for a series of his remarks, but he told a few plain, homely truths and told them in his own effective way. He pointed out how that there is no cause for Democratic despondency. He showed that recent Republican victories have been achieved not by the aid of the number of Republican votes, but solely by division in the Democratic forces.

The Republican Platform he declared had gone straight along voting the Republican ticket while the more homogeneous element of voters who had gone straight along voting the Republican ticket were true to their party pledges and had supported the Republican ticket. He pointed out upon his figures, he said, the men who had turned to the Republican party in the last four years. The result of the last election was attributable solely to Democratic division and not to any gains by Republican votes.

At the close of his remarks the committee upon organization reported the following:

Executive Committee: G. L. Likens, Chairman; B. D. Ringo, Secretary. East Hartford—M. P. McDowell, J. H. Holbrook, J. W. Thomas, B. B. Stewart, B. P. Taylor, J. H. Holbrook, John T. Smith, Jr., W. A. H. Jones, J. W. Thomas and B. B. Stewart.
